Seacoast Law & Title of Westbrook beats Cranston, R.I., to win the Northeast Regional.

From staff reports

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. - Kyle Heath drove in three runs and scored the other as Seacoast Law & Title of Westbrook won the Junior League Northeast Regional with a 4-1 victory Sunday over Cranston, R.I.

Seacoast fell behind in the top of the second inning, but Heath tied it in the bottom half when he singled home Keenan Lowe.

Two innings later, Heath put Seacoast ahead with a single that drove in Lowe and Zack Bean. Heath eventually scored on a sacrifice fly by Andrew McCarthy to make it 4-1.

Mike Rioux went the distance on the mound, allowing five hits and a walk while striking out seven.

Seacoast (24-3) earned a spot in the championship game when it knocked off previously undefeated Brooklawn, N.J., in the semifinals Saturday night, posting a 5-1 win.
